JULY 2010 Newsletter

Thank you for reading this!

Please celebrate with me:

- That God is faithfully giving more and more Few Small Fish songs. God is overwhelming me with His relevance in this continuing journey.
- That the 3rd album begins recording this September. Through new partnership, we anticipate new angles of marketing and distribution that we have not yet experienced.
- That gigs have received much positive feedback this year.
- That God brought fantastic drummer, Steve H., into some Few Small Fish live gig madness.
- For continuing referrals for gigs, and courage for both you and for me to market Few Small Fish, and create new events.
- For Godly wisdom as we work to balance the business and ministry components of Few Small Fish appropriately.

I wildly appreciate you journeying with me!

Thank you,
Jonas

P.S. Please ask me for a free Few Small Fish 'window car cling' the next time we get together if you don't have one yet! Cheers!

Please pray with me:

- For God to bring us the right bass player. Soon.
- For increasing sponsors or partnerships, enabling continued play within all venue economies.

"You are the Holy Dramamine. And I pray that that's not blasphemy. Because You mean everything to me."

- Lyrics from upcoming album track
"You Mean Everything to Me"
